

David Green Associate Attorney at Foulston Siefkin LLP
Mr. Green is an attorney at Foulston Siefkin LLP in Overland Park, Kansas. His practice includes design and construction contract drafting and negotiation and dispute resolution through litigation and arbitration. Mr. Green represents a wide range of clients across the construction industry, including owners, general contractors, subcontractors, and design professionals. He has an undergraduate degree in Architectural Engineering from the University of Kansas.

William DeBauche Brown and Ruprecht, P.C., Kansas City, MO
Mr. DeBauche is an attorney and shareholder with the law firm of Brown and Ruprecht, P.C., of Kansas City, Missouri. He has 35 years of experience in Kansas City as an attorney, representing parties in construction litigation in state and federal courts, before the Boards of Contract Appeals and in arbitrations. He regularly assists contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and designers with preparation of mechanic’s liens and bond claims, review and preparation of contracts, preparation of notice and claim documents, and general day-to-day advice. From 1994 to the present, Mr. DeBauche has taught Construction Law as an adjunct law professor at the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law. He has prepared several articles for Modern Builder on construction law topics. He has taught numerous seminars for the Builders’ Association and other groups on mechanics’ liens, federal contract claims, construction arbitrations, payment issues, extra work and changes, claims against bonds, construction contract documents, ethics issues and bidding issues. Mr. DeBauche is a member of the panel of arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association for construction disputes. He is a mediator certified by The Missouri Bar. He obtained his B.A. degree, with honors, from the University of Wisconsin and his law degree from the University of Michigan.
