Faculty

Russell W. Olsen Gasperec Elberts Consulting

Mr. Olsen is Senior Survey Manager with Gasperec Elberts Consulting in Rosemont, Illinois. Mr. Olsen has more than 30 years experience as a professional land surveyor in the Chicago metropolitan area. He is currently licensed as a land surveyor in Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, and Texas. He has worked on various projects including commercial, residential, transportation, institutional and municipal projects. Mr. Olsen has a thorough understanding of principles, practices and procedures for the completion of ALTA surveys, topographic surveys, boundary surveys, legal descriptions and plats of easement. He has completed numerous Illinois Department of Transportation land acquisition and topographic surveys, DuPage County Transportation Department and Cook County Highway Department Plats of Highway, and various other ALTA surveys, plats of easements and legal descriptions. Mr. Olsen has held positions as chief of survey, project manager, land survey manager and GIS project manager throughout his career. These positions have provided him with the varying experiences of construction layout, topographic surveying, boundary verification and land conveyance practices. His responsibilities have also changed depending on the specific projects and client needs. Mr. Olsen is experienced in houseline surveying services for various homebuilders. These houseline surveys include permit plats, foundation surveys, grading surveys and final closing surveys.
