Faculty

Deward “Karl” Bowles
Independent Professional Land Surveyor and owner of B&B Surveying Company in Houston
Mr. Bowles began working in the field of land surveying in 1978 and is certified as a Registered Professional Land Surveyor in the State of Texas. Mr. Bowles has given seminars to lawyers, real estate professionals and other land surveyors on land surveying principles, practice and codified standards. He has been an expert witness in a number of legal actions centering around boundary disputes and land surveyor negligence claims. Mr. Bowles has given expert testimony regarding boundary resolution, minimum standards and minimum content regarding land surveys. He is a member of the Texas Society of Professional Surveyors and a former member of the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping.

Robert E. “Robin” Morse III Shareholder/Mediator at Crain, Caton & James in Houston
Mr. Morse has more than 40 years of experience in commercial litigation and environmental law. He started his environmental law practice in 1974, during the infancy of the major environmental regulatory programs. He assists clients on regulatory and transactional matters, representing them in the courtroom and in administrative proceedings, from inception through trial and appeal. He is a founding member of the Houston Bar Association’s Environmental Law Section. From Superfund and Brownfield property redevelopment to toxic tort cases, Mr. Morse deals with the full gamut of environmental law issues. He has successfully represented clients before the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (and its predecessor agencies), the Texas Department of Health, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Federal Aviation Administration and the Texas Railroad Commission.

C. Mauricio Escobar Attorney with Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton, LLP in Houston
Mr. Escobar practices in the firm’s complex commercial litigation practice group as well as the construction and infrastructure projects practice group. His practice involves representing domestic and international companies. Mr. Escobar is a member of the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and the Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater Houston. He is also an adjunct professor at the University of Houston where he teaches Construction Law and Ethics.

Ashley E. Jones Principal Investigator at Moore Archeological Consulting, Inc.
Ms. Jones joined Moore Archeological Consulting, Inc. (MAC) in 2018 as principal investigator and Project Manager for archeological projects. In these roles, she prepares scopes of work and research designs for archeological field projects, manages field investigations and reporting tasks, and ensures compliance with Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act and the Texas Antiquities Code. In addition, Ms. Jones conducts archival and historical background research and analysis for several classes of prehistoric and historic artifacts. Ms. Jones has extensive clearance experience on a variety of cultural resource projects, including pedestrian survey, exploratory test excavations, and large-scale data recovery excavations. She has completed field investigations in Texas, Oklahoma, Ohio, New Mexico and Arizona. As a graduate student at the University of Texas at San Antonio, she participated in field and laboratory projects at CAR, including data recovery excavations at Plaza de Armas. When she is not in the field, Ms. Jones volunteers in her community. She serves as a commissioner on the City of Houston’s Archeological and Historical Commission (HAHC).
