Sara Alexandre Attorney at Swift Currie
Ms. Alexandre is a civil litigation associate with Swift, Currie, McGhee & Hiers, LLP. Her practice involves defending clients in various areas including construction and environmental law, premises liability, products liability, and catastrophic injury and wrongful death. Recently, Ms. Alexandre was recognized in the 2021 Edition of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch – Construction Law list for her work in the field. Further, for the second year in a row, The National Black Lawyers has selected Ms. Alexandre for inclusion in its list of Top 40 under 40 Lawyers in Georgia for 2020. Ms. Alexandre received her undergraduate degree from Yale University, and her Juris Doctor and Masters of Law in Taxation degrees from New York Law School.

Bobbie-Ann Henderson Attorney at Swift Currie
Ms. Henderson is an attorney with more than 20 years of experience focusing on commercial and civil disputes, including first- and third-party insurance coverage, surety and construction matters, business transactions and creditor rights. Ms. Henderson represents insurance, surety and construction companies in claims arising out of commercial general liability, personal and commercial auto, property and casualty and homeowners' insurance policies. She also represents clients in claims and disputes arising out of construction, probate and miscellaneous surety bonds. She is involved from the initial stages of a claim through final resolution, helping to examine coverage issues, identifying policy exclusions and sources of loss. Ms. Henderson graduated from the University of Florida College of Law.

Andy Thomson Founder & Partner at Big Oak Consulting
Mr. Thomson is the founder and partner at Big Oak Consulting, LLC., a consulting company that was created so that Mr. Thomson and his partner, Mr. Pete Herrera could bring their extensive careers of experience in safety management and leadership to companies both large and small who suffer from stalled or negative culture aspects. Mr. Thomson has spent over 30 years working in above ground and underground utilities transmission and distribution infrastructure operations and administration, vertical building trades and materials testing. Having worked within both healthy and ill corporate safety cultures, he has developed a unique skill set as a passionate evaluator and builder of positive and sustainable corporate culture, Mr. Thomson has worked tirelessly through his career as a change facilitator for C suite executives seeking measurable results through program evaluation, cultural navigation or establishment, program correction and ultimately sustainability through consistent leadership.

Josh Stone Attorney & Partner at Stone & Bellus
Mr. Stone has represented owners, contractors, and suppliers in the construction industry for over 25 years, assisting in the resolution of disputes and in the provision of the advice necessary to prevent or reduce future disputes. Mr. Stone has represented clients in the largest construction companies throughout the Southeast and other portions of the United States. His practice focus covers all aspects of Construction Law and Business/Commercial Law. Mr. Stone has both C.P.A. and J.D. degress; he graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law.

David Montgomery Moore Attorney & Partner at Earth & Water Law
Mr. Moore represents businesses regarding complex environmental regulatory matters, government investigations and authorizations, and litigation. He was an attorney with the United States Environmental Protection Agency, working in EPA offices in Atlanta, Washington, D.C. and New York where he focused on work with water, stormwater and related issues including permitting. Mr. Moore has been lead counsel, speaker, and litigator involving stormwater management infrastructure development and permitting representing billions in capital investment across much of the nation. He has been an adjunct professor at Emory School of Law for decades and was one of the founders of the environmental litigation clinic at Emory Law. Mr. Moore graduated from the nationally acclaimed environmental law program at Pace University School of Law.

Gerald Pouncey Jr. Attorney & Chairman at Morris, Manning, & Martin is the chairman of Morris, Manning & Martin, LLP. A senior partner in the firm, he also heads the Environmental and Infrastructure Practices. His primary focus is the acquisition, disposition and/or the redevelopment of properties with significant environmental impact (including state and federal superfund sites), mergers, investments and financing related to such properties and the development and implementation of green energy technologies and strategies. He lectures nationally on these topics. Mr. Pouncey has led efforts in the permitting, financing, acquisition, redevelopment and regulatory closure of numerous industrial properties, mines and landfills throughout the United States. He received his J.D. degree from the University of Georgia School of Law.

Chandra Davis Attorney & Partner at The Employment Law Solution
Ms. Davis is a co-founding partner of ELS and has been practicing employment law for over 16 years. She has extensive experience as a management side lawyer and as a trial attorney for the EEOC. At the EEOC, Ms. Davis served as first chair in over 25 litigation matters on behalf of the Commission and managed investigative files for over 250 charges for the purpose of recommending the initiation of litigation in connection with various civil actions. Ms. Davis is an effective negotiator, mediator, labor and employment law advisor, trainer and litigator. She is registered with the Georgia Commission on Dispute Resolution and has mediated a variety of employment matters at the Agency and litigation stages.
